SECOND ANNUAL

Ethnic Studies Teach-In

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 2023
10 AM - 4 PM

This event invites campus stakeholders and the local community to learn from Ethnic Studies students and scholars about contemporary issues related to anti-racism, decolonization, equity, and social justice. The program features a keynote speaker, Dr. Brittany Wiley, Student-Led Workshops and Artwork, a Drag Show by Cal Poly Drag Club, and a Plenary Panel on implementing Ethnic Studies in K-12 schools.

Interpretation from English to Spanish will be available on Zoom.

This event is made possible by the generous support of the Cuesta College Foundation and the Diversity Coalition of San Luis Obispo County.

The Ethnic Studies Teach-In is approved by the Cuesta College Faculty Professional Development Committee as an equity training (AP-7120). Anyone who attends this event can use their attendance to satisfy the equity requirements for serving on hiring committees.

KEYNOTE

Dr. Brittany Wiley (she/her/hers) received an EdD in Educational Leadership and a Masters in Ethnic Studies from San Francisco State University and attended Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo for a degree in English with a minor in Ethnic studies. Dr. Wiley was born and raised in Paso Robles and currently resides in Redding, CA, continuing her professional passion of teaching Ethnic Studies as an instructor at Shasta College.
