THURSDAY APRIL 22: 3:00-4:00PM

Sí Se Puede – The Power to Shape A Student’s Experience in the Classroom

Dr. Cristobal Salinas, Associate Professor, Florida Atlantic University

Join Dr. Salinas as he encourages students to think about a career path in teaching, how important the role that teachers have in teaching Latinx students, and the powerful way in which they can impact a student’s experience in K-12 classrooms. Additionally, he will share his personal story of migrating to the United States and overcoming challenges as he sought to pursue a college education.

MONDAY APRIL 26: 5:00-6:00PM

Road to Becoming an Educator Info Session

Join the Teacher Pathways to learn about the five Teacher Pathways offered at Cuesta College (and beyond!) and engage with specialized faculty and staff who are ready to guide you towards the teaching path of your choice!

TUESDAY APRIL 27: 4:00-5:00PM

The Importance of Bilingual Education in Today’s Classrooms

Interested in teaching our next generation Spanish? Participate in a conversation with Cal Poly’s School of Education and a panel of current credential students. The credential students on the panel currently are teaching in bilingual programs and will share about the importance of bilingual education in K-12.

WEDNESDAY APRIL 28: 12:30-1:30PM

Getting Started in the Education Field: Marketing Yourself for Employment Success

Know you want a career in education/teaching but are unsure of how to get started? Join Cuesta College’s Career Connections Office to learn about marketing yourself, and the importance of experiences that reflect your career goals and passions. This workshop will also include hiring professionals from San Luis County school sites to showcase opportunities and how to find those opportunities.

WEDNESDAY MAY 5: 5:30-6:30PM

We Transferred: The Latinx Student Experience at a 4-year College

Future Educator Transfer Student & Transfer Student Family Panel

What does it mean to be Latina/o/x in higher education? Learn about the transfer experiences of our panelists as they reflect on their educational paths, identity, and opportunities. We have extended the opportunity to have their family members share their experience, too, as transferring has impacts on a students’ family/familia!
