Email: amity_perryboada@cuesta.edu or amityperry@sbcglobal.net

Course Overview

This course highlights the principles and techniques applicable to all forms of effective business communication. General areas of grammar mechanics and sentence structure will be covered, as well as an emphasis on memorandums, e-mail, routine request letters, positive response letters, negative response correspondence, persuasive communication, resumes, application letters, and report writing.

Please be prepared to spend 8 - 12 hours per week on coursework for this class. Are you wondering how successful you may be at a distance education course? Take the Self-Assessment Survey at <http://www.cuesta.edu/student/aboutacad/distance/survey.html>.

This course is taught using Canvas (<https://cuesta.instructure.com>). This is a Web-based tool used to facilitate teaching an online class. This platform provides the framework for the BUS227 class including PowerPoint presentations, student data files, the tools to receive and send course materials, and a grade book.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Apply business writing principles to plan and compose clear, concise, and accurate business letters and memos.
- Identify and employ the proper communication channel that is most appropriate for a given business situation.
- Identify and solve business problems through researching and reporting the findings in a report.
- Apply problem-solving and critical thinking skills in preparing business messages and presentations.
- Utilize digital tools for researching, reporting, composing and interacting on the job.
- Demonstrate command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics.
- Exercise effective communication through writing, oral presentation, and visual argument.

College Policies

Each student is required to follow all school guidelines and comply with all school deadlines including personal responsibility for adding and/or dropping this class. Drop dates are available on the academic calendar <http://academic.cuesta.edu/admreg/infodate.htm>. Each student is responsible for obtaining updates or changes to the syllabus and/or assignments for the course.

Academic Honesty:

Students are responsible for being aware of and complying with the Academic Honesty Policy (refer to Cuesta College Schedule or Cuesta College Catalog). At the discretion of the instructor, students being academically dishonest (submitting another student's work as your own, e.g. copying a computer file that contains another student's work) will be dropped from the course. If the drop deadline has passed, students will receive a failing grade in the course. In addition, a "Student Incident Report" will be filed with the Vice President of Academic Affairs office.

If you have any further questions prior to the first day of class, please feel free to email me at amity_perryboada@cuesta.edu.

Thank you,

Amity Perry
