

SPECIAL MEETINGS

1111

Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the President of the Board of Trustees, or by three or more members, in writing and signed by a majority of members, when in their judgment such meetings shall be called. Written notices to board members and the news media must be delivered at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting. The time, place, and business to be transacted must be specified; and, by unanimous consent, any business matter may be transacted at any special meeting. (E.C. 72129)

(Revised: 11/25/74)