Mon 7/10/2017 7:56 AM

invites you to attend a special panel discussion

Advancing Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion: *Strategies for Business & Education

This complimentary event provides an opportunity to discuss strategies addressing issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Attendees will learn how to understand micro aggression and unconscious bias in educational and community settings, to recognize these biases, and about the benefits of sustaining a diverse workforce.

Featured Speakers:

Frank Harris III, EdD

Dr. Harris is an associate professor of post-secondary education at San Diego State University. His research broadly focuses on student development and student success in post-secondary education and explores questions related to the social construction of the gender race on college campuses, college men and masculinity, and racial and ethnic disparities in college student outcomes.

J. Luke Wood, PhD

Dr. Wood is an associate professor of community college leadership and the director of the Doctoral Program in Community College Leadership at San Diego State University. Dr. Wood is also the chair-elect for the Council on Ethnic Participation for the Association of the Study of Higher Education, director of the Center for African American Research and Policy, and co-editor of the Journal of Applied Research in the Community College.
