BP 7361.4 Decision of the Board of Trustees

The findings and decision of the Board of Trustees on said appeal shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

If the appeal of the employee is sustained, the Board of Trustees may order full or part of the employee's full compensation to be paid from the time of dismissal, suspension, or demotion and shall order reinstatement.

If the order is sustained, the Board of Trustees shall declare such action effective as of the date of board action.
