

This event is sponsored by

CUESTA
COLLEGE

Student Equity & Success Centers, & Academic Affairs

Effective partnerships between schools, businesses, and community agencies are critical in promoting and sustaining diversity and equity efforts within the greater San Luis Obispo area. Join us in discussing strategies for business, education and community to build and engage an inclusive culture that fosters diversity and equity for under-represented groups.

Advancing Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

Strategies for Business & Education

AUGUST 17, 2017
6:00PM - 8:00PM

Reception with refreshments preceding
5:30pm - 6:00pm

Cultural and Performing Arts Center,
Cuesta College

This event is FREE, and open to the public

To register to attend, please go to:

advancingdiversity.eventbrite.com

Please contact: 805-546-3100 ext.2323
for additional information or questions

Attendees will learn how to:

- Understand racial microaggressions and unconscious bias in educational and community settings
- Recognize the ways in which racial microaggressions and unconscious bias often lead to disparities in education and workplace outcomes
- Recognize the benefits of sustaining a diverse workforce

Presenters:

J. Luke Wood, PhD

Frank Harris III, Ed.D

About the presenters:

Dr. Luke Wood and Dr. Frank Harris III are Co-Directors of the Center for Organizational Responsibility and Advancement (CORA), supporting professionals in advancing their capacity to serve historically underserved students.

For more info about CORA visit:
coralearning.org