

Sally Pestana

BIO

Sally Pestana is a 30 year faculty member of Kapiolani Community College, University of Hawaii. She is professor health sciences in the medical laboratory technician program. She is currently on special assignment for the college coordinating a federal workforce C3T grant from the U.S. Department of Labor.

Recent previous experience includes serving as college assessment coordinator for all Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs and member of the college professional development coordinating team.

Ms. Pestana has degrees in medical technology and nutrition from the University of North Dakota.

Ms. Pestana's professional service outside the college includes representing California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii on the board of directors for the American Society for Clinical Laboratory Science (ASCLS), chairing one of two review committees for the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Science (NAACLS), and Vice President of the University of Hawaii Professional Assembly (UHPA), faculty union.