"Boom! Myriam Gurba's writing is a nuclear explosion."

- Silvia Moreno-Garcia, bestselling author of Mexican Gothic

CELEBRATING 15 YEARS

Join us for a lecture and book signing by queer Latinx poet, author, and visual artist Myriam Gurba. Her latest book, Creep: Accusations and Confessions, is a provocative collection of essays exploring the creeping toxicity and negativity that has wormed its way into our lives. She is also the acclaimed author of Mean, a finalist for the Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Nonfiction.

A native of Santa Maria, California, Gurba will be appearing at the Cuesta College, SLO Campus, Harold J. Miossi CPAC on Thursday, April 18, 2024, 5 - 7pm

"By turns baldly direct and slyly entertaining, the collection explores the lives of those Gurba calls 'creeps' — people who exploit or abuse others — and the culture that covers for and nurtures them."

- Washington Post review
