

Ashley Strong Scholarship

- Are you a Cuesta College student involved in social justice?
- Interested in a $500 scholarship?
- If so, you may be eligible for this scholarship.

Ms. Strong was president of Cuesta's first Black Student Union and an active SLO County NAACP member who was passionate about social justice. Before her death in 2018, she was in the process of starting an NAACP chapter on the Cuesta College main campus.

To honor her legacy, the SLO County Branch of the NAACP is offering the first two $500 scholarships this year.

Ashley Strong Memorial Scholarship for Social Justice

The NAACP is the nation's oldest, largest, and most widely recognized grassroots-based civil rights organization. The NAACP's main objective is to ensure a society in which all individuals have equal rights and there is no racial hatred or racial discrimination. More than a half-million members and supporters throughout the United States and the world are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities, campaigning for equal opportunity and conducting voter mobilization.

Ashley Strong was a Cuesta College student and president of Cuesta's first Black Student Union. She also was an active SLO County NAACP member who was passionate about social justice. She was in the process of starting an NAACP chapter on the Cuesta College main campus. However, she was tragically killed in a car accident on October 22, 2018. Ms. Strong will be remembered for her drive to better her communities and strong work ethic.

The San Luis Obispo County NAACP chapter is honoring her legacy by offering scholarships for $500 to each of two students currently involved in social justice activism and who also plan to continue to be advocates for social justice upon completion of college.
